

2022 Fun Club Weekly Themes and Descriptions

Each week Fun Club goers will participate in activities outlined by a theme. All activities are designed to be fun-filled and age appropriate. There will be two groups at Fun Club, Little Chipmunks (Ages 5-7), and Royals (Ages 8-12). The Little Chipmunks will be swimming on Mondays and attending all-day field trips on Thursdays. The Royals will be swimming on Fridays and traveling all day for field trips on Tuesdays.

Week One: 6.2-6.3—Rock N’ Rollin Into Summer

Welcome to Fun Club! Join us for our kickoff to summer, and discovering what camp is all about. This short first week of camp will be used to celebrate the end of school, rock out, and learn about how we put the ‘fun!’ in Fun Club.

Week Two: 6.6-6.10—Rainforest Adventures

Here come the animals! We are welcoming all creatures big and small, this week at camp we will be studying local and exotic animals through nature hikes, visits to the animal shelter, and a trip to the Denver Zoo for both groups!

Week Three: 6.13-6.17—Game On!

Challenge your friends to games of all sorts! We will be creating life-sized board games, playing active running games, and making up our own games. Both groups will be going to Boondocks Fun Center for this week’s field trip.

Week Four: 6.20-6.24—Sports Of All Sorts

Soccer, football, dancing, swimming, hiking... you name it! We will be experiencing all sorts of sports this week through friendly games, hikes, and challenges. Both groups will be going on a tour of Coors Field in Denver this week!

Week Five: 6.27-7.1—Sweet Sweet Summer Vibes

This week is going to be sweet! Candyland, donuts on a string, and an ice cream social will be highlights of this week. Both groups will be going to the Denver Museum of Nature & Science.

Week Six: 7.5-7.8—Tracks to Independence (No Camp Monday, July 4th)

Let’s celebrate the history that led to the creation of the U.S.A! We will explore Summit County history, as well as the railroad industry that helped shape the American West. Both groups will be traveling to Golden to experience the Colorado Railroad Museum.

Week Seven: 7.11-7.15—Splashtacular

Dive into this week with a splash! Stay cool with water balloons, games, and activities during the hottest days of summer. The Royals and Buffalos will be whitewater rafting with Kodi Rafting on Browns Canyon of the Arkansas River, and the Little Chipmunks are heading to the pool and splash zone at Glenwood Hot Springs.

Week Eight: 7.18-7.22—Jr. Ranger

Outdoor Education and Leave No Trace are keywords this week. Campers will learn about the importance of Leave No Trace and caring for the natural environment around them. Both groups will be heading to Staunton State Park to experience the sights and sounds of Colorado nature.

Week Nine: 7.25-7.29—Fun and Fitness

Challenges, Games, Sports, Activities, and everything imaginable to get campers moving and blood pumping, even our own Olympics! Campers will endure activities that aren't only physically and mentally strenuous, but rip-roaring fun! All groups will be heading to Ninja Nation in Centennial this week!

Week Ten: 8.1-8.5—Just Beachy

Whether campers are building a sand castle, or wading in Lake Dillon, this week will be all about beachy fun! The Royals and Buffalos are heading to Water World, while the Little Chipmunks adventure to Splash Aquatic Park in Golden.

Week Eleven: 8.8-8.12—Masquerade Carnival

Face painting, carnival games, cotton candy, costumes, and circus acts are just a few of the activities we have to look forward to this week at camp. Both groups will be taking a trip to Elitch Gardens Theme Park in Denver.

Week Twelve: 8.15-8.17—Fun Club Jubilee

Adios, Aloha, Sayonara, and Farewell to a summer of friendship, fun, laughter, and play. We will spend the last few days of summer participating in our favorite camp activities.
